

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

Mrs. Lucy Walters arrived on the Make yesterday.

The U. S. S. Olympia is expected to-morrow morning.

The Time is out and is going for the Hawaiian as usual.

Fifty lepers were sent to Molokai yesterday on the Likelike.

The Carter Hartwell wedding takes place this evening.

The demand for oysters at McIntyre's store is phenomenal.

Four hundred and three years ago to day America was discovered.

Cricketers should be around this afternoon and do some lively practicing.

A pamphlet relating to the sewage question signed by a pseudonym is for sale at the bookstores.

"Jack" Mehrten and family returned by the Malulani yesterday after a prolonged stay at Lahaina.

Company G drilled last evening. Uniforms will be furnished to the men in a few weeks. Captain Kaia is justly proud of his company.

The Salvation Army is still on deck, and the drum on the corner of Alakea and Beretania streets is tempting sinners into the salvation net.

Miss Cahill's millinery store enjoyed great patronage to-day. The ladies are very pleased with the fancy hats and trimmings offered by the leading milliner.

A hunting party left town at noon to-day to shoot pheasants and ducks (not turkeys) at Koolau. The sportsmen expect to return to town to-morrow loaded down with game.

The Richelieu on Beretania street opened this morning, and will prove itself a first-class family hotel. Mrs. Freimann is the proprietress, and W. S. Bartlett has charge of the dining room.

L. B. Kerr received by the Miowera a fine stock of Valenciennes Laces in edgings and insertions. Finishing braids in rich assortment and novel designs, and a complete assortment of hosiery.

The Hawaiians were happy to-day. Plenty fish at the market and sold at very reasonable prices. The mullets are as fat as possible and the professional gourmands of the club are in a state of ecstasy.

Ladies making dresses for their girls before sending them to school will do well by calling at L. B. Kerr's store and inspect his fine stock of New Gingham, Printed Lawns, and English Prints.

J. A. Mehrten is back to town again in good health, after his three months' absence at Lahaina. But the wind can't blow through his whiskers because they are still too short. Good luck to you Jack.

In season or out of season every family should have a bottle of DIARRHOEA MIXTURE in the house. There is none better than DWIGHT'S, which has been dispensed by the HOLLISTER PHARMACY for the last twenty years.

The biggest hat—which will more than cover the biggest head—in town, is at the Temple of Fashion. You should see it. Also their finest and latest styles in dress prices. The sale prices now ruling there will surprise you.

Remember! N. S. Sachs gets New Goods by every steamer especially Millinery, so you can always find the very latest in shapes and newest styles in Trimmings there and at lowest prices at N. S. Sachs, 520 Fort street.

The police went out for a running drill this morning. Captain Parker intended to give the boys a solid drill but was recalled when the squad had reached Kawaiahae church on account of the arrival of a steamer at which his presence was necessary. The police are getting into shape and out of "fat."

The Advertiser states that at an artillery drill at Manoa yesterday "one of the features of the march was the horsemanship of Major Potter and Captain Ashley." Doesn't the horsemanship of Colonel McLean, who commanded the men, suit the Advertiser? It is rather amusing to the rest of the community.

D. P. Keliipio has been appointed inspector of fish for Honolulu. The appointment is not satisfactory to the Hawaiians who generally contend that the inspector knows nothing about business. A member of the Board of Health who will accept $60 a month to inspect fish is a curiosity. We wonder if Mr. Keliipio ever made that amount of wages during his career as a painter, soldier, street gospel-slinger and fish peddler.

League Meeting.

The meeting of the American League last evening was well attended. Mr. Loebenstein, of Hilo, a disinterested patriot, had volunteered his services as a lecturer. His theme was "The Small farmer," and his audience was somewhat disappointed in simply hearing the usual stereotyped phrases repeated, and nothing new or practical advanced in regard to coffee culture, farming, and annexation subjects, that the speaker claims to be familiar with. W. W. Hall was called on and made speech which did not wake up the assembly to any considerable extent. Mr. Hall did not throw any new light on the situation, and if he knows anything about small farming and annexation, he certainly keeps it for his own clique. Mr. Waity, of the bank of Bishop & Co., was induced to take the floor for a few minutes. He is a forcible speaker, and when familiar with our local circumstances will undoubtedly make his mark here. His fine appearance and eloquent address captured the meeting. At the next meeting of the League certain important business will be transacted.

Cholera Leavings

F. Fisher has three little children—the oldest paralyzed and but six years old. He, with his wife and family, was taken to the Cholera Hospital. There his wife died. His treatment there was, in his opinion, severe, and the food allowance too small. His few household effects were destroyed. On coming out with his motherless children his goods were replaced on an order from the Attorney-General. On pointing out that one mattress and mosquito bar would be sufficient now, and that the value of the other would be more acceptable in the shape of holoaku material for dresses for the children, the extra mattress was stricken out of the order, but nothing put in its place. Fisher owns a boat. The Deputy Marshal hired him for a few days as guard at the Insane Asylum. Then the Marshal wanted a boat. He hired Fisher's at one dollar a day. But he refused to hire Fisher himself.

J. A. Mehrten was on his old element at Lahaina. He was a member of the Board of Health. He has a new yarn on the Board up there. He says one member—he doesn't say which one—said at a meeting of Hawaiians, "Gentlemen, us all put our shoulder to the wheel, never mind what color we are, green, black, white, red or any other color—and don't let the grass grow under our feet." Then one elderly Hawaiian rose up and said, "How is that? How will the horses live if the grass is to be destroyed?"

To close them out Shirt Waists, formerly selling at $1.50 each, have been reduced to $1; and Pith Hats, which were selling at $2, from this on will be sold at $1 each. Call early before the supply is exhausted. A. Barnes, New Republic Building, King street.
